ST. James's, Feb. 27. The following Associations and Address have been presented to His Majesty.

An Association of the Lord-Lieutenant, Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, Freeholders, and others of the County of Essex. Presented to His Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Walden, introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Manchester, in the Absence of the Right Honourable the Earl of Suffolk and Bindon, Lord-Lieutenant and Custos Rotulorum of that County.

An Association of the Lord-Lieutenant, Nobility, High Sheriff Deputy-Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Clergy, Gentlemen, and Yeomen of the County of Kent. Presented to His Majesty by David Polhill, Esq; introduced by the Right Honourable the Earl of Rockingham, Lord-Lieutenant of that County.

An Association and humble Address of a good Number of Inhabitants of the Town of Shrewsbury, who at the breaking out of the Rebellion voluntarily formed themselves into a Troop and five Companies for preserving the Peace of that Town. Presented to His Majesty by William Kinaston, Esq; one of the Deputy-Lieutenants of the County of Salop, introduced by the Right Honourable James Stanhope, Esq; One of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State.

An Association of the Bayliffs, Recorder, Deputy-Recorder, Portmen, Burgesses, Commonalty, and other Inhabitants of Ipswich in the County of Suffolk. Presented to His Majesty by Sir William Thompson and William Churchill, Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Cornwallis, in the Absence of His Grace the Duke of Grafton, Lord-Lieutenant of that County.

All which Associations and Address His Majesty was pleased to receive very graciously.

Venice, Feb. 14. On the 9th Instant Sig. Pietro Foscarini was made Procurator of St. Mark, on which Occasion he gave that Night a magnificent Entertainment and Ball at his House, where was present a great Number of Persons of Quality of both Sexes in rich Habits, all Masked, and among them the Electoral Prince of Bavaria with the Gentlemen of his Retinue. The next Day arrived here the Electoral Prince of Saxony with a great Equipage. 'Tis said that both these Princes will go to Rome after the Carnival. On the 12th the Marquis of Harold, Son of the Duke of Kent, set out from hence for Rome. A good Number of Masts with large Stores of Ship-Timber, were lately brought into our Arsenal, where three new Men of War of the Line are on the Stocks and near finished, with divers small Vessels for Transports. General Schulemberg is gone to Corfau. Letters from Rome give an Account, that on the 7th Instant the Obsequies of the late King of France were solemnized in the Church of St. John Latran, in Presence of several Cardinals and Prelates, and Father Grimaldi a Jesuite pronounced an Oration in Praise of the Deceased. In the Midst of the Church, was erected a Pyramid covered with black Velvet embroidered, and having a Crown on the Top; on the Basis were four Scutcheons, in which was most conspicuously represented, among the Glories of that Monarch's Reign, his Extirpating the Reformed Religion out of his Dominions. 'Twas reported, that the Pope had resolved to send four Legates a Latere to several Courts in Europe, to ask Assistance against the Turks.

Geneva, Feb. 21. The Beginning of this Month, about 6000 Imperialists took Possession of Novi belonging to the Republick of Genoa, and declared they were ordered to subsist themselves at the Expence of that Republick, till the Emperour should have Satisfaction given him on his Demands of that State. The Genoueſe immediately agreeing to pay them 4000 Crowns a Day till the Return of an Express which they sent to Vienna, and those Troops having taken Hostages for the Performance of that Agreement, the greatest Part of them retired to the Milaneze: But about 2000 of them do still continue at Novi, the Imperial Court having not yet returned an Answer to the Offer of Terms of Accommodation made by the Genoueſe. The King of Sicily has ordered 200 Grenadiers to be posted at the Passage of the Bormida, to cover Alexandria; and all his Troops are commanded to hold themselves in a Readiness to march on the first Notice, as likewise his Militia which he has formed into 10 Battallions and cloathed: His regular Forces consist of 12 Battallions of Foot, 3 Regiments of Dragoons, and two of Horse; 12 more of his Battallions, and 2 Regiments of Dragoons are in Sicily. The Alarm is very great all over Italy, upon the extraordinary Preparations of War which are making by the Turks, who 'tis said will have several hundred Transport-Ships ready this Spring for carrying Troops and Horses. The Pope has newly hired 6 Merchant-Ships at Genoa, to be fitted out as Men of War, with 30 Guns each, in order to joyn the Venetian Fleet.

Brussels, Feb. 29. Letters from Graveline of the 26th Instant, confirm the Arrival of the Pretender at Waldam near that Place on the 21st in the Evening, that the Lords Mar and others, with the Generals Sheldon and Nugent, came in the same Ship with him, and that the Pretender and Mar went Post the next Morning towards Paris. The two Regiments of Imperial Dragoons commanded by Prince Eugene of Savoy and the Prince of Wirtemberg, Wirtemberg, have received Orders to march on the 1st of April by a Route assigned them to Ulm, where they expect to find further Orders for continuing their March to Hungary. Count Maldeghem, one of the late Council of State, is gone to Ruremonde, to receive the Oath of Fidelity from the Magistrates of that Place to his Imperial and Catholick Majesty; and the Count de Rubempré is appointed to receive the like Oath from the Magistrates of the Barrier-Towns, of which the Emperour is to have the Soveraignty and civil Government, and the States-General only the military Direction with the Care and Expence of their Preservation.

Dublin, Feb. 20. The College here have unanimously chosen his Royal Highness the Prince of Wales to be their Chancellour; and the Provost with some other of that Body are preparing to go over to England, to attend his Royal Highness with the Diploma of his Election. To Day Mr. Secretary Bladen, by Order of the Lords Justices, acquainted the House of Commons, that His Majesty had been pleased to return the following most gracious Answer to their Address for raising such Forces, and making such further Provision as His Majesty should think necessary for the Security of this Kingdom.

GEORGE R.

HIS Majesty thanks his faithful Commons for their dutiful and loyal Address; and as the Confidence they have with so much Zeal and Unanimity reposed in His Majesty, cannot but be (under God) the surest Means of defeating the Designs of the Pretender, and consequently of Securing the Protestant Religion and Liberties of Ireland, so they may depend upon it, That His Majesty will make no other Use of it, but what will manifestly tend towards those Great Ends.

Edinburgh, Feb. 21. Letters from Inverness of the 13th Instant give an Account, that the Marquis of Huntley and the Lord Rollo had written Letters to the Earl of Sutherland, offering to submit themselves with their Friends and Followers to His Majesty's Mercy. And from Aberdeen we have Letters of the 15th which say, that Rollo of Powis and his Son, Carnegie of Finhaven, and Balfour, have surrendred themselves.

Whitehall, Feb. 27. An Express which left Madrid on the 19th Instant, N. S. has brought his Catholick Majesty's Ratification of the Treaty of Commerce between Great Britain and Spain, concluded the 14th of December 1715.

The Directors of the Corporation of the Amicable Society for a Perpetual Assurance-Office, Do hereby give Notice, That all Members who shall be five Quarters in Arrear at Lady-Day next, will be excluded by the next General Court, if they do not pay their Arrears on or before the Twenty Fourth Day of April next, pursuant to a By-Law for that Purpose.
